Real Estate Advisor

Myra is a New Jersey born Arizona resident for over 18 years, For decades Myra was in the fashion business in Manhattan with factories in Ny and Puerto Rico. Her degree from the Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC served as a wonderful background in all her recent adventures.

Myra's entrepreneurial spirit caused her to branch out into the consulting field with her own firm focusing on colorizing, styling and coordination of wardrobes for high end clients.

For the last 4 years she has grown her business through relationships within the many golf communities in Scottsdale. For 14 years she lived within the community of Desert Mountain where she helped design, decorate and build her home.

Recent Myra has joined forces with the RH Nathan Team at Engel & Voelkers. Combining her skills of colorizing, a strong fashion sense and her ability to work closely with her clients , are perfect attributes for her new career. Living within the communities of Terravita, Grayhawk, Desert Mountain and DC Ranch has given her a broad based understanding of the world in which she lives and now sells.
